Taking Stock

Ingrid Daubechies (Duke University)

Abstract: In her presentation, Daubechies will mix her personal perspective ("taking stock" in her career of over 35 years, and counting), her international experience (as past President of the International Mathematical Union) and her hopes for the near future, in the context of women in STEM.

A light reception will follow her leadership lecture. The lecture and reception are taking place in Cardinal Room 329 on the 3rd floor of Student Center East, accessible by two escalators.
