LIB*60*BER

Title

Donu Arapura, Purdue University

Abstract

A group is called Kähler if it is the fundamental group of a compact Kähler manifold, and in particular a smooth projective variety. I want to talk about geometrically meaningful homomorphisms between such groups. I hope the study of these maps sheds light on the original class of groups.