Mathematics, Statistics, and Computer Science   @ UIC

Logic Seminar

Machine learning and independence

James Freitag (UIC)

Abstract: The relationship between machine learning and the independence property (in the sense of model theory) is well-known. This seminar is not about that kind of independence. We will give an example of a natural problem in machine learning whose answer does not follow from ZFC.

Tuesday, January 23 at 3:30 PM in SEO 427