

Graduate Student Colloquium

Math Education Research: What? How? Why?

Aida Alibek (UIC)

Abstract: This will be a very gentle introduction into what Mathematics Education Research is, how one conducts such research, why mathematicians should care about it and how they could benefit from it. We will look into an example of a very big study on College Calculus to explore this topic more in-depth.

Wednesday, April 3 at 5:00 PM in 636 SEO