

Graduate Geometry, Topology and Dynamics Seminar

Continuity in spaces and sets

Jānis Lazovskis (UIC)

Abstract: This talk will not have too many strange objects, and will focus on the proof of a single result - showing that a particular function is continuous. To do this, we will use geometry to bound distances and topology to define a particular class of open sets.

Wednesday, February 13 at 3:00 PM in 612 SEO